

Financial Survival After Job Loss

Getting your finances in order is a must when anyone loses their job. Making sure that you and your family are protected against financial ruin enables you to focus on finding your next job.

Getting a handle on your financial situation at such a critical time can seem like a daunting task. This is why we encourage you to sit down with the representatives of Brownell Insurance Center and Granite State Financial to answer your questions and concerns in the following critical areas:

- Health Insurance
- Life Insurance
- Retirement Accounts
- Auto & Home Insurance
- Analyzing your spending habits
- Prioritizing your spending
- Making a budget

Careful planning and budgeting can help individuals and families survive losing a job. Sign up today for your free consultation.

Please call Marie Brownell to schedule your Appointment at 603-437-1992 or Email at marie@brownellinsurance.com

Securities products are offered through registered representatives of New England Securities Corp. (NES), a broker-dealer (member FINRA/SIPC), 501 Boylston Street, Boston, MA 02116. Granite State Financial is a separate entity of NES. Brownell Insurance is not affiliated with NES/Granite State Financial. Each company is independently responsible for the products and services they provide.L1208009092[exp1209][ME,NH]